PRESSURE AT START OF STOCK MARKET

Later Gives Way to Better Feeling—National Aniline Advances.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—There was some pressure against the market at the beginning of business today, although stocks were in supply just before the close yesterday. During the first fifteen minutes, offerings were about evenly balanced, without im- portant change except in a few specialties.

National Aniline became prominent at the start of the day, advancing 5 points to 74. The stock of the company following the dissolution of the underwriting syndicate, and the stock was traded in from 27 to 26 1/2. The railroad stocks were steady and unchanged.

There was a better feeling to the market after the first few minutes, based on the cables that an armistice conference has been arranged. This was followed by buying all through the list, causing advances ranging from fractions to over 2 points.

United States Steel, after selling at 85 1/2, moved up to 87 1/2, and Baldwin Locomotive, which sold down to 103 1/2, advanced to 105 1/2. The Petroleum stocks moved in the same way, Mexico Petroleum making a gain of 2 points, to 15 1/2.

The motor stocks were more active than they have been for some days. Kelly-Springfield Tire advanced 3 points, to 78.

A railroad of stocks shared in the general improvement, Reading making a gain of 3/4, to 88 1/2.
